Biography

Cillian Hennessy is a talented young cellist studying at the Royal Northern College of Music. He has benefitted from the mentorship of prominent cellists including Gillian Thoday and Edvard Pogossian. Currently pursuing his Masters Degree after completing his undergraduate studies, he has received several notable awards. Cillian is passionate about chamber music and has been involved in successful ensembles, performing extensively in Greater Manchester and beyond. He has also collaborated with orchestras and participated in various professional engagements including solo recitals.

Hanna Csermely is a 23-year old pianist who began her musical journey at the age of 7 and quickly gained recognition in local music festivals. Her talent earned her the 'Most Promising Pianist' award and opportunities to perform at notable venues. At 16 she joined the Hampshire Specialist Music Course studying under Dr Samantha Carrasco where she participated in masterclasses and achieved a distinction in her ARSM Diploma. During her undergraduate studies at the Royal Northern College of Music, she performed at many prestigious events and was awarded several accompanist prizes. After earning her Bachelor's Degree with Honours, she went on to study for her Masters Degree in solo and collaborative piano. Now based in Hampshire, she enjoys a diverse career in teaching and performing with various ensembles across the country.

Our next concert is on 14th November 2026, when we welcome
Pijus Jonusas - Violin and Kanako Mizuno - Piano
